CHAPTER III QUALIFYING HOLDINGS IN BANK

Requirements for acquisition of qualifying holdings

Article 21:

- (1) No person may, without the prior written authorization of Da Afghanistan Bank, acquire a qualifying holding, 20% participation, 30% participation, or control of a bank. Legal persons having qualifying holdings in banks must be financial institutions.
- (2) The authorization of Da Afghanistan Bank referenced in paragraph 1 shall be requested by submitting to Da Afghanistan Bank a written application accompanied by supporting documents showing that the applicable conditions specified by paragraph 3 of this Article for granting the authorization are met. Da Afghanistan Bank may require that additional documentary evidence be submitted in support of the request.

(3) Da Afghanistan Bank may issue the authorization referenced in paragraph 1 of this Article only under the condition:

- 1- that the applicant, and its beneficial owner, are fit and proper persons;
- 2- that Da Afghanistan Bank can satisfactorily identify the source of the funds to be used for the proposed acquisition;
- 3- if any of the funds referenced in paragraph (2) will be supplied by another person, the influence exercised on the bank by such person, and its beneficial owner, would not be detrimental to the bank or its depositors;
- 4- that the applicant is financially sound;
- 5- the influence that would be exercised on the bank as a result of the acquisition would not threaten the sound and prudent management of the bank;
- 6- that, if as a result of the acquisition, the bank would become part of a group, the conditions of Article 134 of this Law would be satisfied;
- 7- that, if as a result of the acquisition the bank would become a subsidiary of a non-resident supervised financial institution, the requirements of Article 16 of this Law will be satisfied;
- 8- that the acquisition would not hinder Da Afghanistan Bank in the discharge of its supervisory responsibilities because of close links between the bank and any person;
- 9- that it is determined that the acquisition would not result in, or increase the risk of, the bank's involvement in criminal activities, money laundering or terrorist financing;
- 10- that it is determined that bank would not become part of a parallel banking structure as a result of the acquisition;
- 11- Da Afghanistan Bank satisfactorily identifies the actual beneficial owner or owners of the shares in question;
- 12- that, if the applicant is a non-resident of Afghanistan, the acquisition would not be contrary to, or constitute a potential threat to, the orderly development and proper functioning of the national banking system of Afghanistan;
- 13- that such other conditions as Da Afghanistan Bank may specify by circulars and guidelines would be met.

(4) Within three months from the date that the application is submitted to Da Afghanistan Bank, the application shall be approved or rejected, and the applicant shall be sent a copy of the decision by Da Afghanistan Bank.

If the authorization under paragraph (2) has been issued for a non-resident applicant, this period shall be six months.

Da Afghanistan Bank may fix a maximum period for completing such acquisition. Decisions rejecting an application must explain the grounds on which the application is rejected.

- (5) If any person does not observe the maximum period allowed for completing the acquisition of such participation referenced in paragraph 4 of this Article, Da Afghanistan Bank shall cancel its authorization for the acquisition, and shall provide the person with written notice of such cancellation. In addition, that person may be subject to an order of Da Afghanistan Bank containing any of the provisions referenced in Paragraph 4 of Article 24 of this Law.
- (6) For purposes of the definitions of “qualifying holding,” “20% participant,” “30% participant,” and “controller:”
 1. a person is not considered to have a qualifying holding, or to be a controller of an enterprise, solely due to his status as a member of the board of supervisors, management board, or any equivalent body of such enterprise, or solely because members of such bodies are accustomed to act upon advice given by him in his professional capacity; and
 2. A bank is not considered to have a qualifying holding, or to be a “20% participant,” “30% participant,” or “controller” in an enterprise solely through the good faith acquisition of shares reaching or exceeding these benchmarks through foreclosure on collateral, in order to partially or fully satisfy a doubtful claim, or to avoid a loss in connection with a debt previously contracted.
 3. a bank is considered to have a qualifying holding, or to be a “20% participant,” “30% participant,” or “controller” in the enterprise if shares acquired in this manner are not disposed of within one (1) year from the date of acquisition.

Disposals and reductions of qualifying holdings

Article 22:

- (1) No person may sell or otherwise dispose of a qualifying holding in a bank before providing written notification of Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (2) Unless providing written notification to Da Afghanistan Bank, no person may reduce his qualifying holding in a bank, so that the proportion of the voting rights or of the capital held by him would fall below 20 percent, 30 percent or 50 percent or so that the bank would cease to be under his control,
- (3) In the situation referenced in paragraph (2), such person is required to inform Da Afghanistan Bank of the size of his holding in the bank that he would retain.

Reporting of qualifying holdings

Article 23:

- (1) Each bank must inform Da Afghanistan Bank in writing within 3 business days:
 - 1- after acquiring knowledge that any person has acquired a qualifying holding, 20% participation, 30% participation, or control of the bank;
 - 2- after acquiring knowledge that any person has ceased to have a qualifying holding, 20% participation, 30% participation, or control of the bank, and the amount, if any, of that person's remaining holding in the bank; or
 - 3- if any person has acquired a qualifying holding, 20% participation, 30% participation, or control of the bank without the prior written authorization of Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (2) Every bank shall, within one month before the close of its financial year, inform Da Afghanistan Bank in writing of the persons having qualifying holdings and the sizes of such holdings.

Unauthorized acquisitions

Article 24:

- (1) If Da Afghanistan Bank has reason to suspect that a person may have violated, or is violating, the requirement stated in Paragraph 1 of Article 21 of this Law, Da Afghanistan Bank may:
 - 1- require the submission of relevant information from any such person, and from any enterprise controlled by such person;
 - 2- enter and inspect the premises at which that person is suspected of having committed the violation, or at which that person may have books, records, documents or other relevant information; and examine, copy or take possession, if necessary, of any relevant books, records, or documents of that person.
- (2) Any person suspected {of committing such violence}, and persons in charge of such enterprise are required to provide information on the enterprise's business activities, upon the request of Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (3) Persons in charge of such enterprise and employees shall provide such information required by Da Afghanistan Bank even after they have left their positions or employment with the enterprise.
- (4) If persons referred to in paragraph (2) make delay or refuse to cooperate, upon the request of Da Afghanistan Bank, law enforcement officials shall, if necessary by use of force, assist Da Afghanistan Bank in such investigations.

- (5) If Da Afghanistan Bank determines that a person has violated the requirements of Article 21.1 of this Law, it shall issue an order:
- 1- requiring that person to dispose of any shares held, directly or indirectly in the bank, or such part of such shareholding as Da Afghanistan Bank deems appropriate, by a date specified in the order;
 - 2- Prohibiting that person from influencing, or attempting to influence in any manner the management or policies of the bank.
- (6) Pending the issuance of a final order, Da Afghanistan Bank may preclude the person referenced in paragraph 5 of from participating in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of the bank, including the direct or indirect exercise of voting rights in the bank.

Revocation of authorization

Article 25:

- (1) If, at any time, Da Afghanistan Bank determines that one or more of the conditions specified or referred to in Article 21 of this Law do not apply with respect to a person having a qualifying holding in a bank, Da Afghanistan Bank may revoke its authorization and shall apply the provisions referenced in Article 5 of this Law.
- (2) Before Da Afghanistan Bank issues an order in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article, it shall provide the person having the qualifying holding with prior written notice and an opportunity to make written representations, unless the person consents to the issuance of the order. Such notice shall be given at least 15 days prior to the proposed date for issuance of the order.
- (3) The procedures for submission and review of the representations in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article shall be determined by circulars and guidelines of Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (4) From the date of an order given pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article until the person named in the order has sold or otherwise disposed of his holding in the bank or such part of his holding in the bank as is specified in the order, the exercise of the voting rights and the membership in the board of supervisors of the bank of any member appointed by that person shall be suspended. Voting rights so suspended shall not be taken into account for the purpose of determining the quorum for any session, including any extraordinary session, of the general meeting of shareholders.
- (5) Upon the request of Da Afghanistan Bank, the Commission may appoint a special and autonomous administrator who shall be authorized to exercise the voting rights of, and to exercise the authorities of any person whose voting rights are suspended pursuant to paragraph 4 of this Article.

Exceptions from requirements for prior authorization

Article 26:

- (1) The requirements of Paragraph 1 of Article 21 do not apply if a person acquires a qualifying holding, 20% participation, 30% participation, or control of a bank:
 - 1- as a result of foreclosure in connection with a debt previously contracted in good faith and for which the shares served as collateral;
 - 2- Through inheritance or other circumstances over which the person has no control.
- (2) In the situations described in paragraph 1 of this Article, the person in question must:
 - 1- inform Da Afghanistan Bank in writing within 30 days of the acquisition;
 - 2- not take any action directed at influencing the management or policies of the bank, or vote shares so acquired, unless and until he has received the written approval of Da Afghanistan Bank in accordance with this Law.
- (3) A request for authorization under paragraph 2 of this Article must be submitted within 60 days of acquisition, unless the person intends to dispose of any shares associated therewith within a given period of time, in which case he must notify Da Afghanistan Bank without delay.
- (4) If Da Afghanistan Bank does not approve an application under paragraph 3 of this Article, the applicant must reduce his holding in the bank to a level below a qualifying holding, or such other level as Da Afghanistan Bank may direct, within a time period set by Da Afghanistan Bank.

Information requirements for persons with qualifying holdings

Article 27:

- (1) Every person having a qualifying holding in a bank shall submit its annual financial statement and a list of enterprises that he controls to Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (2) Any enterprise having the qualifying holding shall provide the name of each newly appointed member of its board of supervisors and management board, or equivalent bodies, together with information confirming that each such person, and their beneficial owners, is fit and proper person, within 10 days after such appointment.
- (3) If the person having the qualifying holding is a bank holding company, this must also include confirmation that each such person has necessary professional qualifications and experience to perform his duties as required by Article 123 of this Law.

- (4) Da Afghanistan Bank may at any time require that persons having qualifying holdings in banks, enterprises that these persons control, and their beneficial owners, submit further details with regard to information referenced in paragraph (1 and 2), determining whether or not the circumstances under which Da Afghanistan Bank's authorization under Article 21 of this Law was given are still applicable.

- (5) Da Afghanistan Bank must approve or deny the application referenced in paragraph 3 of this Article within 60 days of receiving such application. In case of denial, the applicant must be notified in writing of the reasons.
- (6) Da Afghanistan Bank may attach any conditions to its approval under this Article and fix a maximum period for completing the establishment or acquisition of the subsidiary.

Information requirements for banks regarding subsidiaries

Article 29:

A bank must notify Da Afghanistan Bank in writing:

- 1- within 10 days of the acquisition or establishment of a subsidiary;
- 2- within 10 days of all amendments and additions to the charter and by-laws of its subsidiaries;

- 3- of its decision to relinquish control of a subsidiary, at least 30 days prior to the intended relinquishment; and upon relinquishment of control of a subsidiary, within 10 days following such relinquishment.

Orders to terminate control of subsidiaries

Article 30:

- (1) Should a bank establish or acquire a subsidiary without obtaining the approval of Da Afghanistan Bank, it is required to terminate, according to a written order as issued by Da Afghanistan Bank, its control of the subsidiary within the specified time period. Any sale or other transfer of beneficial ownership of the subsidiary's shares must be to persons who are not related persons of the bank as defined in this Law.
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank may by order revoke its approval for a bank to establish or acquire a subsidiary if it determines that:
 - 1- the circumstances under which such approval was given are no longer applicable; or
 - 2- the subsidiary has engaged in criminal activities, money laundering, or terrorist financing.
- (3) If approval of Da Afghanistan Bank for establishing or obtaining such subsidiary is revoked under paragraph 2, the bank must take the actions specified in paragraph 1 of this Article.
- (4) The procedures applicable to enforcement orders pursuant to Article 111 of this Law shall apply to orders issued under this Article.

Associated enterprises of banks

Article 31:

- (1) A bank may establish or legally obtain only financial institutions as associated enterprises.
- (2) A bank must notify Da Afghanistan Bank at within 60 days to establish or acquire an associated enterprise in Afghanistan, and must obtain the prior written approval of Da Afghanistan Bank to establish or acquire a foreign associated enterprise. The conditions provided for in subparagraphs (2) through (6) of paragraph 3 of Article 28 of this law shall also apply to a notification or application under this paragraph.
- (3) Da Afghanistan Bank may prohibit the intended acquisition or establishment of an associated enterprise by a bank for the reasons set forth in subparagraphs (2), (3), (5), (6) and (7) of paragraph 4 of Article 28 of this Law as applied to the associated enterprise.

- (4) If no objection is received from Da Afghanistan Bank within the 60-day time period referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the bank is allowed to acquire or establish the domestic associated enterprise.
- (5) The provisions of Article 28.5 and Article 28.6 of this Law shall apply to decisions by Da Afghanistan Bank on applications by a bank to establish or acquire a foreign associated enterprise.
- (6) A bank must notify Da Afghanistan Bank:
 - 1- within 10 days of the acquisition or establishment of an associated enterprise;
 - 2- at least 30 days prior to reducing its holding in an enterprise, such that it would no longer be an associated enterprise of the bank; and within 10 days of doing such action.
- (7) Da Afghanistan Bank may by order require a bank to terminate its investment in an associated enterprise on the same grounds as are specified in Article 30 of this Law.
- (8) The procedures applicable to enforcement orders pursuant to Article 111 of this Law shall apply to orders issued under paragraph 8.

Responsibilities of banks regarding acquisitions of subsidiaries and associated enterprises

Article 32:

- (1) A domestic bank that establishes or acquires a subsidiary or associated enterprise, in Afghanistan or abroad, must ensure that:
 - 1- the subsidiary or associated enterprise will furnish the bank with all necessary information,
 - 2- the subsidiary or associated enterprise will permit Da Afghanistan Bank to perform onsite inspections and obtain any information from the subsidiary or associated enterprise; and
 - 3- this will not result in close links with other persons that would impair the ability of Da Afghanistan Bank to perform its functions under this Law.
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank may prohibit the establishment or acquisition of a subsidiary or associated enterprise by a bank or by order, may require the termination of the relationship stated in subparagraph 3 of paragraph 1 of this article, if the conditions set forth in paragraph 1 of this Article are not satisfied.
- (3) Each bank shall keep at its head office a copy of the current financial statements of each of its subsidiaries and associated enterprises.

 - 1- the business plan including a description of intended activities at the proposed branch, its organizational structure, and the provisions for oversight of the branch's activities by the applicant bank;
 - 2- the address of the proposed branch;
 - 3- names of all persons proposed as managers of the branch, and confirmation that these persons meet the requirements of Article 58 of this Law; and
 - 4- any other information that Da Afghanistan Bank deems necessary or appropriate to fulfill its obligations under this Law.
- (3) Da Afghanistan Bank may reject an application under paragraph 1 of this Article if:
 - 1- establishment of the branch would not be in the interest of depositors or potential depositors of the bank;
 - 2- the staff, premises or equipment of the proposed branch office do not meet regulatory requirements established by Da Afghanistan Bank;
 - 3- the business plan does not provide for effective oversight of the branch by the bank; or
 - 4- the applicant bank has not submitted appropriate information according to what required by Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (4) Da Afghanistan Bank may by order revoke its permit under paragraph 1 of this Article if:
 - 1- the branch does not commence operations within six months after the permit is approved;
 - 2- operations of the branch are discontinued for more than six months;
 - 3- the circumstances under which permit was given are no longer applicable;
 - 4- the permit was granted on the basis of false or incomplete information; or
 - 5- the bank fails to submit information concerning the activities of the branch as required by Da Afghanistan Bank.

Establishment of branches of foreign banks in Afghanistan

Article 34:

- (1) A foreign bank that wishes to establish a branch in Afghanistan is required to obtain a written permit from Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (2) The application reference in paragraph 1 shall include
 - 1- the information required by Article 33.2 of this Law;
 - 2- written confirmation that the bank holds a valid license or equivalent document in its home country;
 - 3- the consent of the relevant foreign competent authority for the establishment of a branch in Afghanistan;
 - 4- three years of audited financial statements of the applicant bank verifying the sound financial condition of the bank, all three of which must have an unqualified external auditor's opinions,
 - 5- information relating to any enforcement measures or sanctions currently in effect, or taken with regard to the applicant bank by the competent authority in its home country, or any jurisdiction in which it operates, within the past 3 years;
 - 6- whether the branch will be covered by deposit insurance in the home country and financial information relating to the deposit insurance system of the home country;
 - 7- Information confirming that the requirements of subparagraphs (1), (3), (4), (11), and (12) of Paragraph 3 of Article 21 of this Law are satisfied relating to all persons having qualifying holdings in the applicant bank.
- (3) The permit under paragraph 1 is granted to only a bank that gets a rating not lower than "A" or an equivalent rating issued by an internationally-recognized credit rating agency whose ratings are approved for use by Da Afghanistan Bank;
- (4) Da Afghanistan Bank may reject an application under paragraph 1 of this Article:
 - 1- on any of the grounds provided in Article 33.3 of this Law;
 - 2- if it is not satisfied, based on the information submitted in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article, of the prospects for sound and prudent management of the branch and protection of the depositors of the branch; or
 - 3- if the activities of the applicant bank could be contrary to, or could pose a threat to the orderly development and proper functioning of the national banking system of Afghanistan.

Approval of branch establishment

Article 35:

- (1) Da Afghanistan Bank shall grant or refuse the application for a permit under Articles 33 or 34 of this Law within 60 days after the receipt of a complete application. In the event of refusal of the application Da Afghanistan Bank shall provide the reasons.
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank may grant a permit referenced in paragraph 1 of this Article subject to any conditions it deems appropriate to fulfill its relevant obligations under this Law.

Cooperation with foreign competent authorities

Article 36:

- (1) Da Afghanistan Bank shall consult with the appropriate foreign competent authority before approving an application:
 - 1- by a domestic bank to establish or acquire a foreign supervised financial institution as a subsidiary or associated enterprise, or to establish a foreign branch;
 - 2- by a foreign bank to establish a branch in Afghanistan.
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank shall approve an application referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article only if:
 - 1- Da Afghanistan Bank is satisfied that the legislation and regulations of the foreign jurisdiction require, and the foreign competent authority effectively exercises, supervision on a consolidated basis; and
 - 2- an agreement of cooperation has been concluded between Da Afghanistan Bank and the foreign competent authority, specifying the allocation of powers and responsibilities and procedures governing exchanges of information between Da Afghanistan Bank and the foreign competent authority regarding the supervision of the subsidiary, associated enterprise or branch.
- (3) Da Afghanistan Bank shall promptly inform the appropriate foreign competent authority of any approval under Paragraph 1 of this Article, and shall co-ordinate the procedure for supervision of the subsidiary or branch with such competent authority.
- (4) If Da Afghanistan Bank revokes its permit or approval referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, it shall immediately notify the appropriate foreign competent authority.

Notification requirements regarding branches

Article 37:

- (1) A domestic bank, or a foreign bank operating a branch in Afghanistan, must notify Da Afghanistan Bank in writing of:
 - 1- the establishment of a branch approved under Articles 33 or 34 of this Law, within 10 days after such establishment;
 - 2- all intended alterations in the information specified in paragraphs 2 of Article 33 of this Law, at least 30 days before such alterations are to become effective;

Article 67:

- (1) No bank shall engage in, as an agent, partner or co-owner, directly or indirectly through one or more subsidiaries, in wholesale or retail trade, manufacturing, transportation, agriculture or fisheries, mining, building, or other business activities except for activities that are authorized by Article 66 of this law and Islamic banking chapter.
- (2) With the prior written authorization of Da Afghanistan Bank, a bank may carry on or participate in the carrying on of activities referred to in paragraph 1 of this article for a period of not more than 5 years, to the extent necessary to obtain satisfaction of claims.
- (3) Not more than two extensions of the initial period referenced in paragraph 2 of this Article may be granted by Da Afghanistan Bank, for no longer than one year apiece.

Capital requirements for banks

Article 68:

- (1) Every bank shall be obliged at all times to have its assets exceed its liabilities to third parties, calculated in accordance with international accounting standards or international financial reporting standards, by an amount at least equal to the minimum amount of its initial paid-in capital prescribed by Da Afghanistan Bank at the time that its banking license is issued or such higher amount as Da Afghanistan Bank shall determine.
- (2) No bank shall decrease its capital by repurchasing shares or engaging in a capital distribution without the prior written authorization from Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (3) No bank may increase its capital by issuing shares in exchange for assets other than cash or cash equivalents.
- (4) Each bank shall ensure that the value of its regulatory capital is equivalent to not less than 12 percent of the total value of its assets determined on a risk-adjusted basis, or such higher percentage as specified by related regulations, whereby not less than one-half of regulatory capital shall consist of core capital.
- (5) Da Afghanistan Bank may by related regulation require that banks maintain a specified leverage ratio not lower than 4 percent.
- (6) Da Afghanistan Bank may, based on the particular circumstances of a bank, and having regard to the risks arising from the activities of the bank increase the risk-adjusted regulatory capital or leverage ratio requirements applicable to that bank.

Liquidity

Article 69:

- (1) Each bank shall maintain a minimum amount of liquid assets as may be prescribed by regulations of Da Afghanistan Bank from time to time, having regard to the risks arising from the activities of the bank and such other factors as Da Afghanistan Bank considers relevant.
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank may, based on the particular circumstances of a bank, and having regard to the risks arising from the activities of the bank and such other factors as Da Afghanistan Bank considers relevant, increase the liquidity ratio applicable to that bank.

Classification of assets and provisioning for losses

Article 70:

- (1) Each bank shall value its assets on a regular basis and use all measures in compliance with the principles of sound banking management and law to collect claims.
- (2) Banks are required to value all claims on the basis of the likelihood of payment thereof. Claims on which the full or partial payment is unlikely shall be written off to the extent that is valued as unlikely to be paid.
- (3) Each bank shall periodically allocate reserves for the coverage of losses arising from loans and similar claims and other assets, as well as from assumed off-balance sheet contingent liabilities.
- (4) Da Afghanistan Bank shall establish the procedures for the valuation, assessment of the quality, and classification of loans, similar claims, other assets and off-balance sheet contingent liabilities, and the method of calculating reserves based on such classifications.

Reserves to cover general banking risks

Article 71:

- (1) Each bank shall form reserves in order to deal with general risks to which the bank is exposed, and cover possible losses arising from conducting its activities. The size of such reserves and the ways of their formation, maintenance and usages shall be prescribed in related regulation
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank may require a bank that conducts risky business operations or that shows an unusually high increase in their exposure to various types of risks, to establish higher obligatory reserves.

Foreign exchange position

Article 72:

- (1) The overall net foreign-exchange position of a bank shall not exceed a percentage of the regulatory capital of the bank as determined by related regulation

- (2) The methods for calculating net open currency positions, the overall net foreign exchange position and the limitations on net open currency positions shall be established by related regulations.

Limits on exposures

Article 73:

- (1) No bank shall have an exposure to a person or a group of connected persons if:
- 1- the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all its exposures to that person or group of connected persons would exceed the equivalent of fifteen percent of the bank's regulatory capital, or such higher percentage as may be specified by related regulation.
 - 2- the aggregate outstanding amount of large exposures to the person or group of connected persons, would exceed the equivalent of two hundred percent of the bank's regulatory capital, or such higher percentage not to exceed six hundred percent as may be specified by related regulation.
- (2) The limitations specified in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not apply to any principal amount of credit that is fully secured by collateral and readily sellable in the market as defined by regulation of Da Afghanistan Bank;
- (3) No bank shall grant the secured credit referred to in sub-paragraph 2 of paragraph 1 of this article if as a result thereof the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all its secured credits to such person or group of connected persons would exceed 15 percent of the bank's regulatory capital, or such higher percentage as specified by related regulation.
- (4) Da Afghanistan may prescribe by regulation exemptions from the limitations of paragraph 1 of this Article for:
- Transactions related to Da Afghanistan Bank.
 - Transactions with, or guaranteed by, a government.
 - Transactions between banks with a maturity of one year or less.

For the purposes of applying this Article a group of connected persons shall be deemed to include any borrower and other person with whom such borrower is connected directly or indirectly in such a way that the financial soundness of any of them may affect the financial soundness of the other or others or the same factors may affect the financial soundness of some or all of them, or if as a result of the structure of their relationship the other person is ultimately responsible for or benefits from the exposure outstanding; and Da Afghanistan Bank may exercise discretion in determining whether persons constitute a group of connected persons on a case by case basis.

(5) A bank shall by its credit risk policies require board approval of any large exposure.

Relations between banks and their customers

Article 74:

- (1) The relations between banks and their customers shall be governed by agreements between them whose terms and conditions may not be abrogated unilaterally by one of the parties, unless provided otherwise by the agreements.
- (2) Each bank shall be free to determine by written agreements with its customers the terms and conditions on which it does business with its customers, including: rates of interest, fees and charges payable by the bank on bank account balances, or payable by its customers on credits and other financial services provided by the bank. The repayment terms of credits provided by banks, interest and other charges payable on any amount of debt to banks shall be payable only for the days on which such amount has been outstanding.
- (3) Banks shall provide to their customers adequate information concerning the terms and conditions associated with deposits, savings and bank credit in such form and substance as determined by this law and regulations issued by Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (4) All disputes between domestic banks and their domestic customers, and all claims of domestic customers on non-resident banks on account of activities of domestic representative offices of the banks, shall be settled by the commission, and if the commission decision or order is not satisfactory for one of the parties, the dispute is adjudicated by the relevant courts of Afghanistan.

Dormant account

Article 75:

- (1) On the first business day of the following calendar year, each bank shall:
 - 1- dispatch by registered post a notice to the holder of each dormant account at his last known address containing particulars of the dormant account; and
 - 2- publish in at least one local newspaper the name of the account holder and the particulars of the dormant account.
- (2) Not less than 90days after the notice and publication referenced in paragraph 1 of this Article, if the account holder cannot be located, the bank shall make a detailed report to Da Afghanistan Bank and shall turn over the amount on deposit in dormant account to Da Afghanistan Bank, to be held in a special account at Da Afghanistan Bank. Da Afghanistan Bank may use the funds in such special account for such purposes as it may determine.
- (3) If for a period of ten years following the date of transfer by the bank of the amount referenced in paragraph 2 of this Article to Da Afghanistan Bank, any person furnishes to Da Afghanistan Bank satisfactory proof of ownership, is entitled to the immediate repayment of the amounts so transferred by Da Afghanistan Bank.

- (4) After expiration of the period referenced in paragraph 3 of this article, any remaining unclaimed amounts shall be transferred to the Ministry of Finance for inclusion in the revenues of the Government of Afghanistan.

Payment of debt in advance of maturity

Article 76:

- (1) Each debtor of a bank may pay all or part of his debt to the bank at any time in advance of its agreed maturity date.
- (2) Prepayments referenced in paragraph 1 of this Article may be made subject to a contractually agreed prepayment fee.
- (3) With respect to debt payable in installments, the bank may elect to apply partial [prepayments] proportionately to all installments or only to the latest installment.
- (4) Any other covenants excluding or restricting the right of prepayment referenced in paragraphs 1, 2, or 3 of this Article shall be null and void.
- (5) In each agreement which a bank finances by credit, the bank shall specify the payment fees, if any, prior to payment of the principal amount of the credit.

Secured debts

Article 77:

- (1) Banks shall be free to require their clients to secure their respective obligations by collateral, guarantees or other commitments.
- (2) In the event of a payment default on debt to a bank secured by a pledge of or a lien on movable goods, or by a mortgage on immovable property or other registered goods, the movable and immovable goods or property may be sold in accordance with law. The bank may participate in the bidding for the goods or property.
- (3) For the event that the goods or property referenced in paragraph 2 of this article cannot be sold, by public auction, or in market for a price that is at least equal to the amount of the debt together with sales costs, the interested parties may agree by a separate agreement to sell the goods or property in a different way, or failing such agreement the authorized court may decide at the request of any of the parties, that the goods or property shall be sold.
- (4) The bank may purchase the goods or property, in cases referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article.
- (5) After deduction of the amount of the outstanding debt and costs, and payment of debts owed to any other person to whom the goods or property are pledged by the debtor, the bank shall pay the balance of the purchase price to the owner.

- (6) If the sales price of the goods or property referred to in paragraph 2 of this article net of costs is insufficient to cover the amount of the outstanding debt, the unpaid amount remains an obligation of the debtor to the bank.

Records of transactions and commitments

Article 78:

- (1) Banks shall keep on file for at least ten years the pertinent documents for each one of their transactions, as follows:
 - 1- the application and all contract documents pertaining to the transaction (including credit, guarantee and collateral agreements);
 - 2- the financial records of the bank's counter parties (including borrowers and guarantors), and any other documentary evidence on which the bank relied in approving the transaction;
 - 3- a signed written record of the decision of the bank approving the transaction;
 - 4- the account agreements of bank with its customers; [and]
 - 5- such other documents as Da Afghanistan Bank may specify by regulation
- (2) Bank is also required to keep the records mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article in electronic form.

Requirements for transactions with related persons

Article 79:

- (1) A bank may not undertake any transaction with any of its related persons unless it has the prior written approval of a majority of the bank's board of supervisors. The board shall not make any decision pending full disclosure of all material terms and conditions of the transaction.
- (2) The board of supervisors shall specify in the minutes of the decision meeting that the transaction referenced in paragraph 1 of this article is fair to, and in the best interest of, the bank.
- (3) The bank must maintain a written record of the approval of the transaction referenced in paragraph 1 of this article, including the names of those members of the board of supervisors approving of the transaction.
- (4) A member of a bank's board of supervisors shall not participate in the consideration or approval of any transaction between the bank and:
 - 1- himself;

- 2- any of his close relatives;
 - 3- any enterprise in which he or any of his close relatives has a qualifying holding, or serves as a member of the board of supervisors, management board, or equivalent body.
- (5) The requirements of paragraph 1 of this Article do not apply to:
- 1- deposits in the bank made by its related persons in the normal course of business;
 - 2- making deposits in a bank that is a member of the same group, in the ordinary course of correspondent business, subject to any restrictions that Da Afghanistan Bank may prescribe by regulations or orders.

 - 2- publish such statements and reports in an official newspaper of general circulation in Afghanistan.
- (3) Further to requirements set forth in paragraph 1 of this article, each domestic bank shall:

- 1- exhibit the financial statements and reports referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article in a conspicuous place in each of its offices and branches, in Afghanistan or abroad, and keep it so exhibited throughout the following twelve months;
 - 2- Provide copies of the financial statements and reports referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article to any person requesting such copies, for a reasonable fee, not exceeding the administrative costs of providing such services.
- (4) Each non-resident bank with one or more domestic branch offices in Afghanistan shall:
- 1- submit to Da Afghanistan Bank its audited financial statements prepared on a consolidated basis as well as pro forma financial statements for its branch offices in Afghanistan, together with external audit reports, for the most recently completed financial year, no later than the date when such statements and reports for the non-resident bank as a whole are submitted to the non-resident bank's home country competent authority;
 - 2- publish the statements and reports referred to in subparagraph 1 of this paragraph in an official newspaper of general circulation in Afghanistan, within 15 days of their submission to Da Afghanistan Bank;
 - 3- exhibit such statements and reports in a conspicuous place in each of its branch offices in Afghanistan throughout the current financial year;
 - 4- make copies of the statements or reports referred to in subparagraph 1 of paragraph 4 of this Article available to any person requesting such copies, for reasonable fees, not exceeding the administrative costs of providing such services .
- (5) If a material error becomes evident in any report which has been published under this Article, Da Afghanistan Bank shall be promptly informed of the error and a corrected report shall be issued and published.

Meetings between Da Afghanistan Bank and external auditors

Article 96:

- (1) Da Afghanistan Bank shall periodically, and at least once a year, arrange trilateral meetings with each bank, or branch of a foreign bank operating in Afghanistan, and its external auditors to discuss matters relevant to Da Afghanistan Bank's supervisory responsibilities that arise in the course of the audit of the bank.
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank may, if it considers it necessary in the performance of its functions under this Law, arrange bilateral meetings with external auditors of banks or branches of foreign banks operating in Afghanistan.

CHAPTER IX REPORTING

Reporting by banks

Article 97:

- (1) Each bank operating within the territory of Afghanistan must prepare and provide to Da Afghanistan Bank reports covering:
 - 1- its financial condition, including capital adequacy, solvency, and profitability, of itself, its subsidiaries and associated enterprises;
 - 2- its liquidity position;
 - 3- its administration and operations;
 - 4- nonperforming loans and loan losses and provisioning;
 - 5- its foreign-currency positions;
 - 6- interest rates;
 - 7- monetary statistics;
 - 8- large exposures and credits; and
 - 9- such other reports, as may be prescribed by related regulations of Da Afghanistan Bank in accordance with internationally accepted supervisory and statistical standards and practices.
 - 10- Islamic Bank according to its different operation from a conventional bank shall provide additional reports.
- (2) The reports referenced in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be prepared in such form and detail and shall be submitted at such times as shall be prescribed by regulations of Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (3) Each domestic branch office and representative office of a non-resident bank shall prepare and submit to Da Afghanistan Bank reports concerning its administration and operations. The reports shall be prepared in such form and detail and shall be submitted at such intervals as shall be prescribed by related regulation.
- (4) Da Afghanistan Bank may impose sanctions on banks, financial institutions and their agents, in accordance with Article 108 of this Law, in the event of incomplete or late reporting, non-reporting, and inaccurate reporting, or filing false or misleading reports.
- (5) All nonbank financial institutions and agents operating in Afghanistan are also subject to the requirements of this Article, to the extent deemed appropriate by Da

Afghanistan Bank, unless they have been specifically exempted by Da Afghanistan Bank.

Compilation of statistical information

Article 98:

- (1) Banks and other financial institutions and agents, as well as any other firm or organization that is involved in the granting of credit, shall be obligated to prepare and provide to Da Afghanistan Bank, or another organization authorized by Da Afghanistan Bank, information on specific transactions, individuals, or firms that are needed, and compilation of statistics concerning its supervisory, policy, and statistical functions.
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank shall compile and aggregate statistical information received from banks and other financial institutions as required to meet its policy needs for the public, and fulfill obligations to international organizations
- (3) Da Afghanistan Bank is prohibited from disseminating to the public statistical information and data that reveals the identity of individual persons or firms, unless already in the public domain or for carrying out the functions of a private or public credit registry. Otherwise, the perpetrator shall be punished in accordance with law.
- (4) Da Afghanistan Bank may provide information mentioned in paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article to supervisors or other authorities for the execution of supervisory duties if such supervisors and authorities are authorized in accordance with the laws or regulations on confidentiality of banking and financial records to receive such information.

Inspections

Article 99:

- (1) Each domestic bank and each of its subsidiaries and associated enterprises, as well as branch offices and representative offices of nonresident banks operating in Afghanistan, shall be subject to inspections by inspectors of, or auditors appointed by, Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (2) In the case of foreign subsidiaries and associated enterprises of domestic banks, or branch offices and representative offices of nonresident banks operating in Afghanistan, such inspectors or auditors referenced in paragraph 1 of this Article may include persons appointed by the relevant foreign competent authority, as agreed between Da Afghanistan Bank and such foreign competent authority.
- (3) In their inspections pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, Da Afghanistan Bank and its auditors shall be authorized:
 - 1- to enter any office of the bank or its subsidiary or associated enterprise and to examine there the accounts, books, documents and other records of the bank or the subsidiary or associated enterprise; [and]

- 2- to obtain from members of the board of supervisors and management board or equivalent bodies, employees and agents of the bank or its subsidiary or associated enterprise information on any matter relating to the administration and operations of the bank or the subsidiary or associated enterprise.
- (4) Each domestic bank and each of its subsidiaries and associated enterprises, and its domestic branch offices and representative offices, shall permit the inspectors and auditors appointed by Da Afghanistan Bank to enter their premises and shall cooperate fully with them in carrying out their duties.
- (5) Da Afghanistan Bank may, if necessary, ask for law enforcement officials' assistance to gain access to the accounts, books and other records of such bank or subsidiary or associated enterprises.
- (6) Da Afghanistan Bank shall not be authorized to carry out inspections or to prepare reports or provide information at the request of persons or agencies except when requested by foreign bank regulators, and except as provided in this Law or ordered by an authorized court.
- (7) Da Afghanistan Bank shall prepare a report of the inspection and within three months following completion of each inspection of a bank or its subsidiary or associated enterprise, or of a branch office or representative office, send a copy of the report to the bank, subsidiary, associated enterprise or office.

CHAPTER IXX

PROMPT CORRECTIVE ACTION AND ENFORCEMENT MEASURES

Notification of undercapitalized status

Article 100:

- (1) In the event that a bank becomes undercapitalized, significantly undercapitalized, or critically undercapitalized, the bank must immediately inform Da Afghanistan Bank of this fact, in writing.
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank may also determine the undercapitalization referred to in Paragraph 1 of this article based on its own calculation and shall promptly inform the bank of its determination, in writing.

Capital restoration plan

Article 101:

- (1) Promptly upon receiving or providing a notification in accordance with Article 100 of this Law, Da Afghanistan Bank shall provide the bank with written notice of its intent to issue an order:

- 1- requiring the bank to submit to Da Afghanistan Bank for its approval a capital restoration plan, or to revise any previously submitted capital restoration plan to the satisfaction of Da Afghanistan Bank, as the case may be; and
 - 2- Imposing any restrictions under Articles 102, 103 or 104 of this Law that Da Afghanistan Bank deems appropriate.
- (2) The bank shall contain in its capital restoration plan referred to in subparagraph 1 of paragraph 1 of this Article details of how the bank will restore its capital to the required level, and the time period within which the bank expects to achieve compliance.

Restrictions applicable to undercapitalized banks

Article 102:

- (1) An undercapitalized bank may not:
- 1- engage in new activities without the prior written approval of Da Afghanistan Bank;
 - 2- increase its risk-weighted assets more than 5% per fiscal year without the prior written approval of Da Afghanistan Bank. Such assets include on balance sheet and off balance sheet items that are risk weighted.
 - 3- carry out a capital distribution;
 - 4- make discretionary payments to the members of its board of supervisors or management board.
- (2) The restrictions of Article 103 of this law also apply to any undercapitalized bank that fails to submit an acceptable capital restoration plan within the time period required by this Article, or fails to implement a plan approved by Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (3) Da Afghanistan Bank may also impose any of the restrictions of Article 103 of this law on an undercapitalized bank if it determines such restrictions to be necessary in order to successfully implement the capital restoration plan approved by Da Afghanistan Bank

Restrictions applicable to significantly undercapitalized banks

Article 103:

A significantly undercapitalized bank is prohibited from doing any of the items in paragraph 1 of Article 102 of this Law, and, in addition, may not, without the prior written approval of Da Afghanistan Bank:

- 1- pay interest rates on deposits in excess of market rates;

- 2- increase risk-weighted assets more than 1.25% per quarter. Such assets include on balance sheet and off balance sheet items that are risk weighted
- 3- increase the salary or privileged compensation, or pay any bonus to any member of its board of supervisors or management board;
- 4- engage in any transactions with any related person of the bank;
- 5- transfer any assets to any related person of the bank; or
- 6- accept deposits from correspondent banks, including renewals and rollovers of existing deposits.

Additional measures applicable to certain banks

Article 104:

- (1) Da Afghanistan Bank may by order require any significantly undercapitalized bank, and any undercapitalized bank that fails to submit a capital restoration plan on time or does not adhere to a capital restoration plan approved by Da Afghanistan Bank, to take one or more of the following actions:
 - 1- endeavor to sell enough shares so that the bank will be adequately capitalized after the sale;
 - 2- endeavor to be acquired by a parent company, or to merge with another bank;
 - 3- alter, reduce, or terminate any activity which is undertaken by the bank or its subsidiary or associated enterprise when Da Afghanistan Bank determines such activity poses excessive risk to the bank;
 - 4- dismiss or replace any member of the board of supervisors or management board, or elect an entirely new board of supervisors or management board;
 - 5- divest itself of, or liquidate, any subsidiary or associated enterprise that Da Afghanistan Bank determines is in danger causing a significant risk to the bank;
 - 6- take any other action that Da Afghanistan Bank determines to be necessary for the bank to become adequately capitalized.
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank in all cases can issue removal order of a person stated in Article 108 of this Law.

Criteria for approving requests by undercapitalized or significantly undercapitalized banks

Article 105:

Da Afghanistan Bank will grant approval to an application under sub-paragraph (1 and2) of Paragraph (1) of Article 102 or Article 103 of this Law only if:

- 1- Da Afghanistan Bank has approved the bank's capital restoration plan, or any revisions to the plan required by Da Afghanistan Bank;

- 2- Da Afghanistan Bank determines that the bank is implementing the plan referred to in subparagraph 1 of this article in a satisfactory way and is able to meet the goals of the plan by the approved target dates; and
- 3- Da Afghanistan Bank determines that the proposed action is consistent with, and will advance the objectives of, the plan.

Measures relating to critically undercapitalized banks

Article 106:

- (1) If a bank becomes critically undercapitalized, Da Afghanistan Bank shall without delay, and in no event more than 30 days after being notified, or making the determination that the bank is critically undercapitalized, either appoint a conservator for the bank, or appoint a receiver for the bank.
- (2) Until a conservator or receiver is appointed for a critically undercapitalized bank, such bank is subject to all restrictions provided for in Articles 103, 104, and 105 of this law.
- (3) A critically undercapitalized bank under paragraphs (1 and 2) of this article, may not:
 - 1- accept any new deposits;
 - 2- make any payment of principal or interest on its subordinated debt, or other senior debt with characteristics of capital;
 - 3- enter into any significant transaction that is not in the normal course of business, including any investment, expansion acquisition, sale of assets, or any action for which the bank is required to provide notification to, or seek approval of, Da Afghanistan Bank under this Law; or
 - 4- make any material change in accounting methods.

Measures in cases of violations or practices endangering banks

Article 107:

- (1) It considered to be a violation by a bank or any member of the bank's board of supervisors, management board, person with a qualifying holding in a bank, or any other person participating in the conduct of the affairs of a bank, if:
 - 1- failed to observe any provision of this Law, or any regulation or written order of Da Afghanistan Bank, or written agreement with Da Afghanistan Bank made pursuant to this Law;
 - 2- failed to observe any condition or restriction attached to the banking license of the bank or to an authorization issued to the bank or person by Da Afghanistan Bank; or

- 3- engaged or participated in any unsafe or unsound practice relative to the bank.
- (2) In the event of any of the violations set forth in paragraph 1 of this Article, Da Afghanistan Bank may:
- 1- enter into a written agreement with the bank or person on remedial measures to be taken;
 - 2- issue a written order requiring the bank or person to take any remedial action as Da Afghanistan Bank deems necessary.
 - 3- issue a written order imposing a monetary fine.
- (3) A fine imposed subparagraph (3) of paragraph 2 of this Article shall:
- 1- the seriousness of the violation;
 - 2- the impact or potential impact of the violation on the bank or its depositors;
 - 3- the extent to which the violation was intentional or repeated; and
 - 4- the financial capability of the bank or person in question; and

Removal orders

Article 108:

- (1) Da Afghanistan Bank may, by an order in writing, require the removal of a person from his position as a member of the board of supervisors or management of a bank, if Da Afghanistan Bank determines that the person is not suitable to hold that position because the person:
- 1- has become disqualified to hold the given position by failing to meet the qualification requirements under Article 58;
 - 2- has violated any fiduciary duty under Article 59 of this law in fulfilling his responsibilities; or
 - 3- has engaged in any violation or other actions specified in paragraph 1 of Article 107 of this Law.
- (2) In making a determination under paragraph 1 of this Article, Da Afghanistan Bank must consider the seriousness of the factors set forth in that paragraph, and whether the interests of the depositors and creditors of the bank have been, or are likely to be, adversely affected by the person's continuing to hold his position as a member of the board of supervisors or management.
- (3) In any order issued under paragraph 1 of this Article, Da Afghanistan Bank may, in addition:

- 1- prohibit the person from further participation in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of the bank;
 - 2- prohibit the person from direct or indirect exercise of voting rights in the bank;
 - 3- require the person to dispose of all or any part of his ownership (direct or indirect) in the bank; and/or
 - 4- prohibit the person from holding any position in, or participating in any manner in the conduct of the activity of, any bank or any enterprise in the same group as the bank, without the prior written approval of Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (4) Da Afghanistan Bank may issue any order under this Article against any person after he has ceased to be a manager or member of the board of supervisors or management board of a given bank.
- (5) The provisions of this Article apply in the same manner to members of board of supervisors and management board of companies in the same group as a bank.

Suspension of persons charged with criminal offenses

Article 109:

- (1) If any person referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 108 of this Law is officially charged with any criminal offense, or with any offense entailing money laundering or terrorist activities, Da Afghanistan Bank may issue a written order suspending such person from his position in the bank, and prohibiting his participation in any manner of the conduct of the affairs of the bank, pending the final determination of the competent court.

This provision shall not apply to an offense based on the person's religious or political views or activities

- (2) If such person is convicted of any such criminal offense, and the conviction is not subject to further appellate review, Da Afghanistan Bank shall issue a written order removing such person from his position in the bank, and, may include in such an order any or all of the items set forth in paragraph 3 of Article 108 of this Law.

Disposal of shares pursuant to enforcement orders

Article 110:

In the event that any person is required to sell or dispose of voting shares of a bank pursuant to an order issued in accordance with Article 108 or 109 of this Law and does not do so within the prescribed period of time, Da Afghanistan Bank may order the sale of such voting shares at public auction or in any other manner it deems appropriate.

Procedures for enforcement orders

Article 111:

- (1) Before Da Afghanistan Bank issues an order in accordance with Articles 101, 107, or 108 of this Law, it shall provide the affected bank or person with at least 15 days prior written notice. The bank or person affected by the order may submit written representations to Da Afghanistan Bank, unless the bank or person consents to the issuance of the order.

- (2) A bank that notifies Da Afghanistan Bank that it is undercapitalized or significantly undercapitalized is not entitled to prior notice of a proposed order by Da Afghanistan Bank requiring it to submit a capital restoration plan, but is entitled to such notice and the opportunity to submit written representations if Da Afghanistan Bank proposes to impose additional restrictions in accordance with Article 102, 103 or 104 of this Law.
- (3) The procedures for submission and consideration of representations in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article shall be determined by related regulation.

Temporary orders

Article 112:

If Da Afghanistan Bank determines, based on the allegations set forth in the written notice referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 111 that the violations or unsound and imprudent practices of the bank are likely, prior to the conclusion of the process, to lead to insolvency of the bank, a significant dissipation of assets or earnings of the bank, a weakening of the condition of the bank, or other danger to the interests of the bank's depositors or to the public interest; or that the books or records of the bank are so incomplete or inaccurate that Da Afghanistan Bank is unable, through the normal supervisory process, to determine the financial condition of the bank or the details of any transaction that may have a material effect on the financial condition of the bank, Da Afghanistan Bank may issue a temporary order:

- 1- the case of a notice relating to Article 107 of this law, requiring the bank to take any action Da Afghanistan Bank deems appropriate to prevent any of the circumstances described in his Article, or to correct record-keeping deficiencies.
- 2- the case of a notice relating to Article 108 of this law, suspending any person to whom the notice pertains from his position, and prohibiting his further participation in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of the bank.

Temporary freezes

Article 113:

- (1) In connection with a written notice referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 111 of this Law, if Da Afghanistan Bank determines that it is necessary to preserve any assets, funds, or other property belonging to, or under the direct or indirect control of, any person subject to the notice, pending a final order to be issued in accordance with Article 107, 108 or 109 of this Law, Da Afghanistan Bank may issue a temporary order:
 - 1- prohibiting any such person, or any enterprise controlled by any such person, from taking any action to withdraw, transfer, remove, dissipate, or dispose of any such funds, assets or other property; and

- 2- appointing one or more representatives of a Da Afghanistan Bank to administer such temporary order.
- (2) In connection with a temporary order issued pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article, Da Afghanistan Bank may issue a written instruction to any bank or other financial institution to freeze summarily any account or accounts at such bank or institution that are maintained by, or under the control of, any person subject to such temporary order, or any enterprise controlled by that person, and to retain all moneys in any such account, pending the further instructions of Da Afghanistan Bank.

Effectiveness of temporary orders and asset freezes

Article 114:

- (1) A temporary order issued under Article 112 or 113 of this Law shall remain in effect:
 - 1- pending a determination by Da Afghanistan Bank in accordance with Article 107, 108 or 109 of this Law on whether to issue the proposed order;
 - 2- subject to paragraph 2 of this Article, until it is dissolved, limited, or suspended by the Commission in accordance with Article 115 of this Law;
 - 3- in the case of an order based on a determination specified in paragraph 1 of Article 112 of this Law, upon a determination by Da Afghanistan Bank by examination or otherwise, that the bank's books and records are accurate and reflect the true financial condition of the bank.
- (2) If Da Afghanistan Bank appeals against a decision of the Commission dissolving, limiting or suspending a temporary order pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article 115 of this Law, the temporary order shall remain in effect pending a decision on the appeal by the Supreme Court.

Commission review of temporary orders

Article 115:

- (1) Within 10 business days after a bank or other person has been served with a temporary order in accordance with Article 109, 112 or 113 of this Law, such bank or person may submit a petition to the Commission for review of the temporary order. The filing of such a petition for review has no postponing effect on the temporary order.
- (2) The Commission may dissolve, limit, or suspend the enforcement, operation, or effectiveness of the temporary such order pending the completion of the proceedings specified in Article 109 or 111, as the case may be, only if the Commission determines that:
 - 1- there is a substantial likelihood that the petitioner will prevail on the merits of

- the case;
- 2- the petitioner will suffer irreparable injury if the petition is not granted;
 - 3- granting the petition will not result in harm to Da Afghanistan Bank or the bank in question; and
 - 4- it is in the public interest to grant the petition.

Issue, effect and termination of orders

Article 116:

- (1) Each order or temporary order given to a bank pursuant to this Law shall be in writing and shall include the actions that the bank is ordered to take. Each such order or temporary order may specify the time by which, or period of time during which, it is to be complied with.
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank may specify in any such order the time by which, or period of time during which, the conditions provided in the orders under paragraph 1 of this article shall be complied with.
- (3) Da Afghanistan Bank shall serve such order or temporary order given to a bank upon the head office of the bank; if the orders and temporary orders are concerning a domestic branch office or representative office of a nonresident bank, they may be served upon that office.
- (4) Da Afghanistan Bank shall attach to such order or temporary order a copy of the text of the decision of Da Afghanistan Bank to give that order, stating the reasons, and the provision of the law authorizing Da Afghanistan Bank to give the order or temporary order.
- (5) Each such order or temporary order remains in effects and shall be fully complied with as of the time of its service upon the bank, until it expires in accordance with its terms, or it is replaced by another order or temporary order of Da Afghanistan Bank, or it is annulled upon review by a decision of the Commission, or it is rescinded by Da Afghanistan Bank by notice in writing to the bank.
- (6) Da Afghanistan Bank may rescind an order or temporary order if Da Afghanistan Bank determines that it is no longer necessary.
- (7) An order or temporary order by Da Afghanistan Bank overrides any provision of the charter of the bank, any license, permit or authorization issued to the bank by Da Afghanistan Bank, and any contract or arrangement to which the bank is a party, whether taking effect before or after the order or temporary order, if such provision presents an impediment to compliance with the order or temporary order; however, payment or transfer of money pursuant to an order of a court or a process of execution shall be an exception to this rule.

Commission review of final enforcement orders

Article 117:

- (1) Any person against whom a final order is issued pursuant to Article 101, 107, 108, or 109 of this Law (other than an order issued with the consent of that person) may file a petition for review of the order by the Commission within 30 days of the date of service of the order.
- (2) The Commission, based on the record of the decision of Da Afghanistan Bank, may affirm, terminate, or set aside the order, in whole or in part, or may remand the matter to Da Afghanistan Bank for further proceedings.
- (3) The commencement of proceedings for review under paragraph 1 of this Article does not postpone the effect of the order or any requirements set forth in the order.

CHAPTER XI SUPERVISION

Transparency of group structures

Article 118:

- (1) Each group that contains a bank must adopt an organizational structure which allows Da Afghanistan Bank to determine:
 - 1- the ultimate controllers of the group;
 - 2- the business activities of each enterprise in the group;
 - 3- the financial situation of the group and each of its individual enterprises;
 - 4- the risk profile of the group and each of its individual enterprises;
 - 5- the effectiveness of the group's procedures and practices regarding risk management, internal controls and corporate governance at the group level; and
 - 6- the business, financial and other relationships between the members of the group.
- (2) Any group containing a bank must have an organizational structure that does not impede Da Afghanistan Bank's ability to perform its supervisory duties, or the internal or external audit functions.
- (3) A bank that is a member of a group must function as a separate legal entity from the rest of the group, and be able to identify its assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses, and risk profile, separate from the group.

Applicability of prudential requirements to groups containing banks

Article 119:

- (1) The following provisions of this Law apply to banking groups on a consolidated basis as well as to each bank with the group:
 - 1- capital adequacy requirements (Article 68);
 - 2- limits on exposures (Article 73); and
 - 3- investments in other enterprises (Article 83).
- (2) Da Afghanistan Bank may by regulations apply other provisions of this Law to banking groups.
- (3) Each group that contains a bank must have policies and procedures regarding capital adequacy, investments, large exposures, and foreign exchange risk that are adequate for its business activities.
- (4) The ultimate parent company of the group is responsible for ensuring compliance with the requirements under paragraph 3 of this article.
- (5) Da Afghanistan Bank shall review the policies and procedures specified in paragraph 3 of this article for each such group at least annually to ensure their suitability for these purposes, and to ensure that such policies and procedures are being complied with. Da Afghanistan Bank may require any adjustments to such policies and procedures that, in its judgment, are necessary to protect the bank or banks in the group.
- (6) Da Afghanistan Bank may require a bank to hold additional capital, or to operate with a capital adequacy ratio above the ratio that would normally be applicable, if Da Afghanistan Bank determines that the capital of the group is not sufficient to protect the bank.

Risk management systems and internal controls

Article 120:

- (1) Each group that contains a bank must have risk management systems and internal controls that are appropriate for the group's activities. Such systems and internal controls must be subject to review and updating on a regular basis.
- (2) The ultimate parent company of the group is responsible for ensuring that the requirements under paragraph 1 of this article are met for the entire group.

Capital adequacy of bank holding companies

Article 121:

Each bank holding company shall maintain adequate capital, as determined by Da Afghanistan Bank, for the conduct of its business and to allow it to serve as a source of financial strength for each bank in its group.

Governance of bank holding companies

Article 122:

- (1) All persons elected or appointed as members of the board of supervisors, or management board, or equivalent bodies of a bank holding company must be fit and proper persons and must have sufficient professional experience and qualifications to perform their duties.
- (2) The members of the board of supervisors and management board, or equivalent bodies, of bank holding companies must comply with the requirements of article 59 regarding the fiduciary duties.
- (3) Da Afghanistan Bank may promulgate corporate governance standards for bank holding companies in related regulations.

Activities of bank holding companies

Article 123:

A bank holding company may engage only in financial activities, management of financial institutions, and activities that are incidental to these activities.

Investments by bank holding companies

Article 124:

- (1) All bank holding companies must ensure that they have in place the necessary policies and procedures, as well as the financial and managerial capability, to undertake and monitor investments in other enterprises.
- (2) A bank holding company may not have a qualifying holding in any enterprise that is not a financial institution.
- (3) Paragraph 2 of this Article does not apply in case a bank holding company acquires a qualifying holding in an enterprise in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted in good faith, provided that the holding company's beneficial ownership is reduced to a level below that of a qualifying holding within 1 year.

Subsidiaries and associated enterprises of bank holding companies

Article 125:

- (1) A bank holding company may have only financial enterprises as subsidiaries and associated enterprises.
- (2) A bank holding company must provide at least 60 days' prior written notification to Da Afghanistan Bank before establishing or acquiring a domestic subsidiary or associated enterprise.
- (3) The notification referenced in paragraph 2 must include:

- 1- the name of the enterprise and the expected amount of the bank holding company's beneficial ownership;
 - 2- the type or types of business activities engaged in by the enterprise;
 - 3- financial information about the enterprise;
 - 4- information concerning the management of the enterprise;
 - 5- an organizational chart showing the structure of the resulting group;
 - 6- information concerning the expected relationship between the bank and the proposed subsidiary or associated enterprise.
 - 7- other information as may be requested by Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (4) Da Afghanistan Bank may prohibit the establishment or acquisition of a subsidiary or associated enterprise by a bank holding company if:
- 1- it would be detrimental to the interests of its depositors; or
 - 2- It impedes the requirements of Article 118 of this Law to be satisfied.
- (5) If no objection is received within 60 days following the submission of a notification under paragraph 2 of this Article, the bank holding company may proceed with the intended establishment or acquisition.
- (6) A bank holding company that establishes or acquires a subsidiary or associated enterprise, in Afghanistan or abroad, must ensure that:
- 1- the subsidiary or associated enterprise will furnish the bank holding company with all of the information necessary to allow it to meet its obligations under this Law.
 - 2- It permits Da Afghanistan Bank to perform onsite inspections and obtain any information from the subsidiary or associated enterprise as may be necessary for fulfilling the requirements under this law; and
 - 3- the establishment or acquisition of the subsidiary or associated enterprise will not result in close links with other persons that would impair the ability of Da Afghanistan Bank to perform its functions under this Law.
- (7) Da Afghanistan Bank has the right not to allow a bank holding company to establish or acquire a subsidiary or associated enterprise, or, by order, to require the termination of that relationship, if in the opinion of Da Afghanistan Bank the conditions set forth in paragraphs 4 or 6 of this Article are not satisfied.
- (8) Each bank holding company shall keep at its head office a copy of the financial statements of each of its subsidiaries and associated enterprises.

- (9) The procedures for issuing orders under Article 111 of this Law shall apply to orders issued under this Article.

Foreign subsidiaries and associated enterprises of bank holding companies

Article 126:

- (1) A bank holding company must obtain the prior written approval of Da Afghanistan Bank before establishing or acquiring a foreign subsidiary or associated enterprise. An application for approval must include the information referenced in paragraph 3 of Article 125 of this Law. If the proposed foreign subsidiary or associated enterprise is a supervised financial institution, information concerning the financial supervisory regime in the relevant foreign jurisdiction in question.
- (2) If the proposed foreign subsidiary or associated enterprise is a supervised financial institution, Da Afghanistan Bank shall consult with the relevant foreign competent authority following receipt of the application under paragraph 1 of this article.
- (3) Da Afghanistan Bank may deny an application under paragraph 1 of this article for the same reasons specified in paragraph 4 of Article 125 of this Law, or under following circumstances:
- 1- the legislation of the home state of such enterprise does not require, or the relevant competent authority does not exercise, effective supervision on a consolidated basis; or
 - 2- effective cooperation with the relevant foreign competent authority is not feasible.
- (4) Da Afghanistan Bank may attach any conditions to an approval under paragraph 1 of this Article that it deems appropriate to fulfill its obligations under this Law.
- (5) Da Afghanistan Bank shall co-operate with regard to responsibility and the principles of supervision of such subsidiary referred to in paragraph 1 of this article with the relevant foreign competent authority.

Reports by bank holding companies

Article 127

- (1) In addition to the reports required by Article 23 of this Law, each bank holding company shall submit to Da Afghanistan Bank an annual report to Da Afghanistan Bank containing:
- 1- the administrative structure of the group of which the bank holding company is a member, including the name and principal business activity of each member of the group and the amount of the bank holding company's beneficial ownership;

- 6- the bank shall carry in its name the words “in receivership,” shall engage only in those activities that are deemed by the receiver to be appropriate or necessary to carry out the receivership process.

Nullification of certain pre-appointment transactions

Article 149:

- (1) The following transactions by a bank that would damage the interests of creditors of the bank, are done within five years before the appointment of the receiver, and that the bank and its counterparty in the act knew or had a reason to know that it would damage the interests of creditors of the bank, may be declared null and void by the receiver:

- 1- any gratuitous transfer of bank assets;
 - 2- a payment or transfer to a related person or member of the staff of the bank, unless such related person or staff member shows to the satisfaction of the receiver that the payment or transfer was made in the ordinary course of business, concerned his employment by the bank, or was withdrawn from an account maintained with the bank and was not unusual in size, or proves that he did not know that the payment or transfer would damage interests of creditors of the bank;
 - 3- a payment or transfer is made before its due date or the transfer of collateral is made for a debt before the due date of the debt;
 - 4- the conclusion of a contract imposing obligations on the bank that are more onerous than those imposed on other parties to the contract;
 - 5- an arrangement between the bank and one or more others, other than an eligible financial contract defined in this Law, permitting an offset between rights and obligations of the bank and the other parties that without such arrangement would not have been deemed to be permissible before the time of the decision to appoint the receiver for the bank;
 - 6- any repurchase by the bank of shares from any shareholder of the bank, unless the repurchase was approved by Da Afghanistan Bank in accordance with this Law;
 - 7- any capital distribution, unless such distribution was approved by Da Afghanistan Bank in accordance with this Law;
 - 8- any payment by the bank that substantially exceeded the value of the goods, services, or other assets received by the bank in return;
 - 9- any transaction with the apparent purpose of concealing or withholding assets from creditors of the bank or the receiver, or otherwise to impair their rights; or
 - 10- any transaction based on a fraudulent or forged document.
- (2) The recipient of any transaction that is declared void under paragraph 1 of this Article must return the received money or other property to the receiver within a time period set by the receiver. If the property no longer exists, an equivalent amount of money, representing the value of the property as of the date of transfer by the bank, must be returned.
- (3) If a transferee of money or other property from the bank in a transaction that is declared void under paragraph 1 of this Article has transferred such money or other property to another person, the receiver may recover such money, or other property or its value, from such other person only if the other person did not give fair value in exchange, and knew or had reason to know that the initial transfer from the bank could be declared void under this Law. If the receiver cannot recover such money or other property from such other person under this paragraph, it may recover an equivalent value from the original transferee.

- (4) In connection with a nullification undertaken under paragraph 1 of this Article, the receiver may issue a temporary order:
 - 1- prohibiting any recipient of any transaction referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, or any enterprise controlled by any such person, from taking any action to withdraw, transfer, remove, dissipate, or dispose of any such funds, assets or other property; and
 - 2- appointing one or more representatives of the receiver to administer such temporary order.
- (5) In connection with a temporary order issued pursuant to paragraph 4 of this Article, the receiver may issue a written instruction to any bank or other financial institution to freeze summarily any bank account or accounts at such bank or institution that are maintained by, or under the control of, such person, or any enterprise controlled by that person, and to retain all moneys in any such account, pending the further instructions of the receiver
- (6) A person who is subject to a temporary order may within 10 days of receipt of such order, seek review of such order before the Commission. The provisions of Article 115 of this Law shall apply to review by the Commission of such orders.
- (7) Any disputes arising from a decision of the receiver to declare a transaction void in accordance with paragraph 1 shall be resolved by the Commission.

Finality in payment and securities settlement systems

Article 150:

- (1) Irrevocable money and securities transfer orders entered by a bank into a payment or securities settlement system recognized as such by Da Afghanistan Bank shall be legally enforceable and binding on third parties, even in the event of appointment of the receiver.
- (2) Where a bank enters irrevocable money or securities transfer orders into a payment or securities settlement system on the day that appointment of the receiver for the bank, the transfer orders shall be legally enforceable and binding on third parties, unless the receiver proves that the system operator was aware of the appointment of the receiver before he agreed to such orders.
- (3) The transfer orders entered in the money payment or securities settlement system shall be irrevocable at that time in accordance with the rules of that system.

- (4) Contracts and transactions referenced in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article concluded before the appointment of the receiver shall be enforceable and no case shall cause the unwinding of netting by a payment or securities settlement system recognized as such by Da Afghanistan Bank. For the purposes of this Article, “netting” means the conversion into one net claim or one net obligation of claims and obligations resulting from transfer orders which a participant or participants in a settlement system either issue to, or receive from, one or more other participants in that system.

Payment of insured deposits

Article 151:

- (1) The receiver shall pay the insured deposits in the bank for which a receiver has been appointed upon request of the depositor:
 - 1- in one or more payments as agreed between the depositor and the Corporation ; or
 - 2- Through payment to an institution that assumes the liabilities of the bank in receivership in a purchase-and-assumption transaction.
- (2) The total amount of the payment shall be the amount of the deposit as shown in the records of the bank, with interest if applicable. Such advance payments shall not be affected by rights of the bank to set off, or the subject to blocking orders under Article 155 of this Law.
- (3) Depositors do not need to register their claims to their deposits in accordance with Article 156 of this Law unless they disagree with the amount of their deposit as shown in the bank’s records.
- (4) Upon payment of insured depositors, the Corporation shall be subrogated to the claim of those insured depositors.
- (5) Deposits denominated in a foreign currency shall be reimbursed in Afghani at the midpoint between the official selling and buying transfer exchange rates quoted by Da Afghanistan Bank at the end of the day upon which the receiver was appointed for the bank.

Preliminary report of the receiver

Article 152:

- (1) Within two weeks from the date of its appointment as receiver for a bank, the receiver shall submit to Da Afghanistan Bank an asset and property report listing:
 - 1- the assets of the bank, including claims of the bank on account of unpaid subscriptions of capital stock of the bank, loan and guarantee agreements, and agreements of purchase or sale, as well as the book values and estimated

- liquidation values of the assets;
- 2- the contracts pursuant to which property of the bank is held by the counter parties, including rental, lease and collateral agreements;
 - 3- the contracts pursuant to which the bank receives services;
 - 4- the significant transactions entered into by the bank during the period of thirty days immediately preceding the date of the receiver's appointment as receiver; and,
 - 5- a calculation of deposit insurance coverage.
- (2) The receiver shall update the report referenced in paragraph 1 of this Article quarterly and shall make it available to the creditors of the bank whose claims are included on the list of approved claims prepared pursuant to Article 157 of this Law.

Recommended plans by the receiver

Article 153:

- (1) Immediately upon being appointed receiver for a bank, the receiver shall undertake an analysis of the financial condition of the bank. If such an analysis has previously been undertaken by any conservator for the bank, the receiver shall update that analysis.
- (2) Within 60 days of its appointment as receiver, unless this period is extended by Da Afghanistan Bank, the receiver shall present a written report to Da Afghanistan Bank, based on the analysis undertaken pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article. The report may include a detailed plan to sell all or specified assets and liabilities of the bank to another entity or person, including a bridge bank, in accordance with Article 141 of this law.
- (3) In case of a partial sale of assets or liabilities under paragraph (2) of this article, the receiver shall specify in the report whether the proposed sale would treat creditors belonging to the same class in a non-discriminatory manner.

Decision of Da Afghanistan Bank on the receiver's recommended plan

Article 154:

- (1) Within 30 days of the receipt of the report described in Article 153 of this Law, Da Afghanistan Bank shall make a decision whether to accept or reject the recommendation in the report.
- (2) If Da Afghanistan Bank rejects the receiver's recommended plan, it may direct the receiver to implement an alternative plan entailing any of the items specified in paragraph 2 of Article 153 of this Law.
- (3) Da Afghanistan Bank may change or amend the receiver's recommended plan in any way it deems appropriate, prior to or during the implementation of the plan.
- (4) The receiver shall provide quarterly progress reports to Da Afghanistan Bank during the implementation of any plan referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article.

- (5) Until the process of resolving the bank is completed, the former bank shall continue to be subject to the provisions of this Law as if it were still licensed, to the extent determined appropriate by Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (6) The provisions of article 137 of this law regarding moratorium shall apply to a bank for which the conservator is appointed.

Blocked Claims

Article 155:

- (1) If the receiver reasonably believes that a depositor has caused a loss to the bank, or owes an obligation to the bank and there are serious doubts as to the ability or willingness of the depositor to repay that obligation, the receiver may announce a partial or complete suspension of the bank's liabilities regarding uninsured deposits or investment accounts of that person in the bank
- (2) The receiver shall notify the depositor of the order under paragraph 1 of this article within 3 business days.
- (3) The blocking order under paragraph 1 of this article shall remain in effect pending a determination whether the depositor has caused a loss to the bank, or that a depositor owes an obligation to the bank.
- (4) When a blocking order is declared, the receiver shall take measures aimed at preserving the approximate value of these deposits and investments in the bank together with interest accrued before and during the effective time of the blocking order.
- (5) A depositor whose account is blocked pursuant to an order issued under paragraph 1 of this Article may, within 10 days of receipt of such order, seek review of such order before the Commission. The provisions of Article 115 of this Law shall apply to review by the Commission of such orders.
- (6) Disputes between a depositor and receiver arising from blocking orders imposed under this Article shall be resolved by the Commission.

Registration of claims

Article 156:

- (1) Creditors of a bank for which the receiver has been appointed must register their claims with the receiver in writing within 60 days from the date that the decision appointing the receiver for the bank is published. Da Afghanistan Bank may once extend this term for all creditors by 30 days. Creditors shall be given a registration receipt upon request. The claims referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 157 of this law are expected from requirements of this article.
- (2) Claims shall be registered together with documentary evidence of the claim and the following information:

- 1- the name and address of the creditor;
 - 2- the amounts of interest and other charges, penalties and taxes included in the principal amount of the claim; and
 - 3- details concerning any mortgage, lien or guarantee securing the claim, including the name and address of any guarantor.
- (3) The appointment of the receiver for a bank suspends the prescription of claims on account of deposits recorded in the books or records of the bank. The prescription of all other claims is suspended by their registration with the receiver.

Admission of claims

Article 157:

- (1) Only claims that are registered in accordance with Article 156 of this Law may be admitted, except that claims on account of deposits recorded in the books or records of the bank and claims for the bank's employees' unpaid salaries (exclusive of bonuses, amounts due upon severance, or any other payment due the bank's employees in excess of their base salaries) shall be admitted for the amounts so recorded without registration.
- (2) Claims recorded in the books or records of the bank by the receiver shall be admitted without further proof. Claims registered for an amount that is less than the amount recorded by the bank shall be admitted only for the lesser amount.
- (3) Creditors of the bank with claims secured by a mortgage or lien resting on assets of the bank may register their claims for the amount by which the amount of the claim exceeds the expected sales value of the asset in a similar auction.
- (4) Claims whose value is uncertain may be admitted for a value estimated by the receiver.
- (5) After examining the registered claims, the receiver shall record the claims admitted by him on a list of admitted claims and the claims contested by him on a separate list specifying the reasons for his opposition. The mentioned lists shall for each claimant specify name and address, the amounts of his claims, and whether the claims are secured by collateral. Claims of equal ranking shall be listed together, in the order of their priority of payment.
- (6) The receiver shall complete the lists mentioned in paragraph 5 of this Article within thirty days from the deadline for claims. A creditor who wishes to contest a determination of the receiver may submit a petition for review to the Commission within 30 days of receiving the receiver's determination. Determinations by the receiver that are not contested shall be final.
- (7) The Commission shall set such dates for hearings of petition under paragraph 6 of this article, so that the creditor can submit evidence to prove their claims to the receiver and the Commission, provided that such hearings shall be held not later than sixty days after the date on which the list of contested claims is submitted to the Commission.

- (8) Creditors shall be notified only once of the date of each hearing by mail (which may include electronic mail) and by notice published by the receiver.
- (9) Claims for which the creditor fails to appear at the hearing of which he has been notified by mail shall be regarded as rejected.
- (10) The commission shall notify in writing the creditors whose petitions for review have been rejected in. A copy of such notification shall be provided to the receiver.
- (11) The decision by the Commission on contested claims under paragraph 6 of this article shall be final, and needs to be communicated to the receiver, and recorded in a list kept by the receiver.
- (12) Creditors whose petitions for review have been approved by the Commission shall be notified by the Commission in writing. A copy of such notification shall be provided to the receiver.
- (13) The receiver shall not make payment on account of petitions that are rejected by the Commission. The creditor whose petition has been rejected by the Commission may appeal the decision of the Commission within two weeks after the date of receipt of notice of the decision.

Set off and netting

Article 158:

- (1) No decision made under this Law shall prevent the set-off by operation of law of obligations between a bank for which the receiver has been appointed and its counter parties.
- (2) In determining the rights and obligations between a bank for which the receiver has been appointed and its contractual counter parties, effect shall be given to the termination and set off provisions of eligible financial contracts between them. The net termination value determined in accordance with an eligible financial contract between them shall be a claim of the bank on the counterparty or shall be admitted after its registration as a claim of the counterparty on the bank.

For purposes of this Law, “net termination value” means the net amount obtained after setting off the mutual obligations between the parties to an eligible financial contract.

- (3) For purposes of this Law, an “eligible financial contract” means any of the following agreements:
 - 1- a currency or interest rate swap agreement;
 - 2- a basis swap agreement;

 - 4- an agreement providing for a cap, collar or floor transaction;
 - 5- a commodity swap agreement;
 - 6- a forward rate agreement;
 - 7- a repurchase or reverse repurchase agreement;
 - 8- a spot, future, forward or other commodity agreement;
 - 9- an agreement to buy, sell, borrow or lend, securities, to clear or settle securities transactions or to act as a depository for securities;
 - 10- any derivative, combination or option in respect of, or agreement similar to, an agreement referred to in sub-paragraphs (1) to (9) of this paragraph;
 - 11- any master agreement in respect to an agreement referred to in subparagraphs (1) to (10) of this paragraph;
 - 12- a guarantee of the liabilities under an agreement referred to in subparagraphs (1) to (11) of this paragraph; and
 - 13- any agreement prescribed by related regulations.
- (4) Except as provided by Article 150 of this Law, no set off shall be allowed with respect to claims acquired and debts assumed with respect to a bank after the appointment of the receiver for the bank takes effect or with respect to claims acquired and debt assumed securely before that decision takes effect.

Termination of current contracts

Article 159:

- (1) All current contracts or portions of contracts of a bank for which the receiver has been appointed for the delivery of goods or services, including contracts of sale, rental and lease contracts, hire purchase contracts and employment contracts, may be terminated unilaterally by the receiver within a reasonable time after its appointment.
- (2) Such counterparty referenced in paragraph 1 of this article may submit a claim to the Commission for compensation for breach of contract.
- (3) Compensation to counterparties as referenced in paragraph 2 of this article shall be determined as of the date of termination and shall be limited to actual direct damages incurred and shall not include any damage for lost profits or opportunity or non-monetary damages.
- (4) The claims for compensation under paragraph 2 of this article shall rank as general unsecured claims under subparagraph 8 of paragraph 1 of Article 162 of this law.

Negotiated settlements

Article 160:

- (1) The receiver for a bank may enter into negotiated settlements of claims with any creditor and debtor of the bank.
- (2) The negotiated settlements referenced in paragraph 1 of this article shall not be subject to review by the Commission or appeal to any court.

Secured claims

Article 161:

- (3) Remaining assets shall be transferred to the persons who were reflected in the records of the bank as shareholders of the bank on the date of the appointment of the receiver for the bank, pro rata to their respective ownership shares.

No compromise with creditors

Article 163:

Except as provided in Article 160 of this Law, there shall be no compromise with creditors concerning a bank for which the receiver has been appointed.

General meeting and committee of creditors

Article 164:

- (1) There shall be no meeting of creditors concerning the liquidation of a bank for which the receiver has been appointed unless, at the request of the receiver supported by Da Afghanistan Bank, the receiver decides that such meeting is needed.
- (2) There shall be no committee of creditors concerning the liquidation of a bank for which the receiver has been appointed unless, at the request of the receiver supported by Da Afghanistan Bank, the receiver decides that such committee is desirable to represent and protect interests of one or more creditors.
- (3) The receiver, after making decisions authorizing a meeting of creditors or a committee of creditors shall specify the tasks and scope of their authorities.

Distribution

Article 165:

- (1) The receiver may enter the approved claims with the same rank in the same class and list them according to their priority of payment and record them in a distribution schedule in accordance with Article 162 of this Law. Except for the provisions of Article 151 of this Law, the amounts to be paid on claims of the same class shall be determined on the basis of the same percentage applied to the amount of available funds.

- (2) The receiver shall make the payments listed in the distribution schedule referenced in paragraph 1 of this article. Amounts included in a distribution schedule that cannot be paid because the creditors cannot be identified or contacted shall be deposited in an account with Da Afghanistan Bank.
- (3) The receiver shall publish a notice in one newspaper of general circulation in the country inviting the creditors referenced in paragraph 2 of this article to come forward.
- (4) The amounts so deposited shall remain available for payment to the creditors or their heirs until the statute of limitations for the claims as provided by the law has run out. If such creditors or their heirs do not come forward, the unpaid amount shall be transferred to the State.

Authority to pursue claims against persons responsible for causing losses to a bank

Article 166:

- (1) If it is determined that any member of the board of supervisors or management board of a bank for which the receiver has been appointed has caused losses to the bank through violations of applicable laws or related regulations or breaches of fiduciary duties, such persons shall be held personally liable to the extent of the damage they have caused to the bank.
- (2) Where any violation or breach of fiduciary duty mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article has been committed at the direction, instigation or suggestion of any shareholder, person with a qualifying holding in the bank, or other person participating in the conduct of the affairs of the bank, or in order to provide benefits to them, whether directly or indirectly, the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Article shall also be applied to such shareholder or person.
- (3) The receiver for a bank has the authority to commence and pursue lawsuits to recover losses caused to a bank by the actions of persons specified in this Article before the appointment of the receiver for that bank. Such lawsuits may be commenced and pursued even after the receivership of the bank has been completed.
